ABOUT THE COLLEGE

The History of this college can be traced back to 1901 in the legacy of Bhagwan Dev Atma, the most Worshipful Founder of Dev Samaj. He laid the foundation stone for girls' education by establishing Dev Samaj Girls High School, Ferozepur City. Those were the times when education for girls was much despised. This premier and popular institution served as motivation for the establishment of many other reputed educational institutions in Northern India. These institutions are known for their academic and sports excellence, honest administration and high moral atmosphere.

A beginning was made by establishing Dev Samaj Girls High School and Dev Samaj Junior Model School, Chandigarh in 1957. On the pressing demand of public, the Dev Samaj Managing Council decided to widen the scope of its services by starting a Degree College and a College of Education in Chandigarh.

Consequently, Dev Samaj College for Women, Chandigarh was established on 24th July, 1981 to empower young women and give them an opportunity to shape their lives. Taking guidance from the philosophies laid by the reverend Bhagwan Dev Atma Ji, this premiere institute inculcates moral values, respect towards all living beings and to follow the path of righteousness. The true spirit of the college embodies in its motto, "LET SCIENTIFIC TEMPER LIVE THROUGH YOU".
